Surgery is changing rapidly through innovative technologies. More precise, less invasive, and value-focused interventions will dominate the surgical landscape including evolving roles for 'surgeons' in the near future. In this Grand Rounds, the Sheikh Zayed Institute will present examples of three innovative technologies that are in preclinical and clinical spaces pushing these boundaries.

Learning Objectives

Attendees of this session will be able to:

1. Identify immediate adjacent technologies for surgery for near future
2. Evaluate the impact of technology and innovation on the practice of surgery and radiology
3. Discuss perspectives on evolving roles and culture of surgery
