The Mid-Atlantic Center for Children's Health and the Environment will hold its 12th annual conference on September 19th, 2014. This year's conference will focus on healthy buildings, with an emphasis on school and medical office buildings. Participants will receive an overview of elements of a healthy building and will choose between two breakout tracks: Greening the Medical Office and Creating a Healthy School Building.

Continuing education credits for this activity are pending.

The Mid-Atlantic Center is based at Children's National Medical Center and is one of ten Pediatric Environmental Health Specialty Units (PEHSU's). We serve Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia and Washington, DC. Part of our mission is to educate the health professional community on children's environmental health and our annual conference is central to that mission.
