

Children's National[®]

Community Benefit Highlights

Children's National Health System is dedicated to providing world-class clinical care and building a community where every child can grow up stronger.

Here is a snapshot of some of our 2018 community benefit efforts.

131

community health improvement programs
and activities

Over $123
million

in community benefit to improve community health

Advocate. Educate. Partner.

2018

Community Benefit Highlights

1,218

Washington, D.C.-area, elementary-aged students and childcare providers educated on bike and pedestrian safety by the Safe Kids D.C. program

23

families educated at a free 10-week parenting class for housing insecure families through the Healthy Generations Program

1,218

health professionals and students educated on how to care for pediatric patients through pediatric care simulations

32,816

servings of cereal donated to the Capital Area Food Bank led by the Shared Nursing Leadership Advocacy Council

1,054

lactation consultations provided by the East of the River Lactation Support Center

1,318

cases of alleged sexual and physical abuse were presented and/or reviewed by The Child and Adolescent Protection Center as part of the DC Multidisciplinary Team Case Review meetings

896

calls facilitated by DC Map (Mental Health Access in Pediatrics) between primary care pediatricians and mental health specialists, improving access to pediatric mental health care

160+

participants from over 30 different organizations attended the School Health Symposium

For more information on all of our community benefit programs, please visit www.ChildrensNational.org/Advocacy/CommunityBenefit or contact us at communitybenefit@childrensnational.org.