

Children's National.

2020

Community Benefit

Children's National Hospital is dedicated to providing world-class clinical care and building a community where every child can grow up stronger.

Here is a snapshot of some of our 2020 community benefit efforts.

Community Benefit

$194+
million

in community benefit to improve community health

Community Health Improvement Programs

152

community health improvement programs
and activities

2020 Community Benefit Highlights

2,400+ COVID TESTS

administered at the region's first drive-up/walk-up pediatric specimen collection site between March and June of 2020

912 CALLS

facilitated by the DC MAP (Mental Health Access in Pediatrics) team between primary care pediatricians and mental health specialists, improving access to pediatric mental health care

26,496 PARENTS
AND CAREGIVERS

educated on burn and home safety via social media campaign

10 COVID-19

VIRTUAL FAMILY TOWN HALL meetings focused on mental wellness, safety and access to care offered for families and community members in English, Spanish and Amharic

300 STUDENTS

participated in health care career exploration sessions about career paths in pediatric health care

602 INDIVIDUALS

given lactation support at the East of River Lactation Support Center

475 CALLS

to the free COVID-19 hotline where staff members answered frequently asked questions and connected families to COVID-19 testing information and community resources

3,417 STUDENTS

educated on bike and passenger safety through the Safe Kids DC injury prevention program

50 PROVIDERS

supported in Compassion, Practice, Relationships/Restoration (CPR2) Provider Wellness sessions through the Early Childhood Innovation Network (ECIN)

For more information on all of our community benefit programs, please visit www.ChildrensNational.org/Advocacy/CommunityBenefit or contact us at communitybenefit@childrensnational.org.