Report of Scholarly Activity
Children’s National Pediatric Residency Program
2017-2018

A. Publications:

18. Cecchini C, Iqbal S, Murnick J. “Stroke after minor trauma in an otherwise healthy 18-mos old boy.” Pediatrics in Review. Accepted for publication.

B. Presentations at Major Regional/National/International Meetings:

1. Cohen A, DeWolfe C. To Brue or Not To Brue. Poster Presentation at the Pediatric Hospital Medicine Conference (Clinical Conundrum Poster Session) in Nashville, Tennessee; July 2017.

with Sickle Cell Anemia. Poster Presentation at the American Society of Hematology (ASH) meeting in Atlanta, Georgia; December 2017.

13. Madrigal V, Cecchini C, McCabe B, Lyon M. The Respecting Choices ® interview: Qualitative assessment. Poster presentation at the Research and Education Week at Children’s National Medical Center in Washington, DC; April 2018.

C. Grants & Scholarships Awarded:

1. Cohen A. Pediatric Hospital Medicine Conference: Resident grant awarded to attend the Pediatric Hospital Medicine Conference. Awarded July 2017. $1,200.

2. Cohen A. APPD Mid-Atlantic Region Resident Research Grant: ‘Examining the Intern Experience Assessing Medical Students.’ Awarded August 2017. $1,000.

3. Kubala S. American Academy of Pediatrics: Resident grant awarded from the AAP Section on Allergy and Immunology to travel to the AAP National Conference and Exhibition. Awarded September 2017. $1,000.

4. Jichlinski A. American Academy of Pediatrics: Resident grant awarded to attend the AAP Annual leadership forum. Awarded March 2018. $1,000.

11. Rueda M. IDSA/NIAID Infectious Diseases: Resident grant awarded to travel to the IDSA/NIAID Infectious Diseases Research Careers Meeting. Awarded June 2018. $1,000.

D. National Awards:

4. Jichlinski A. Child Health Advocacy Institute Dr. Frederick Green Pediatric Residency Advocacy award. Expected June 2018.

E. National Leadership Positions:

1. Cecchini C. 2016–2017 President of the Resident Division of the and 2017-2018 National treasurer of Resident Division of the American Medical Women’s Association (AMWA)

2. Jichlinski A. AAP Immigrant Health Special Interest Group Education Leader