Instructions

First time exiting with a long-term pass:

- Obtain a parking ticket from the ticket machine at the entrance gate.
- Proceed to the Parking Office to purchase a long-term pass.
- When exiting the garage, insert the ticket from the entrance gate into the exit machine and then insert the long-term pass as your form of payment.
- The machine will return the long-term pass; take the long-term pass and exit.

Continued use of a long-term pass:

- When returning to the parking garage, insert the long-term pass into the ticket machine at the entrance to the garage. (Do not take a new ticket.)
- The entrance machine will return the long-term pass; take the long-term pass and enter.
- When exiting the garage, insert the long-term pass into the exit machine. The machine will return the long-term pass; take the long-term pass and exit.

Expiration Date and Time

Your pass will be activated with the time printed on the original parking ticket and will be good for 7 days or 30 days (depending on the type of pass purchased). The expiration date and time is shown on ticket.

Additional Information

- Keep your long-term pass receipt from the Parking Office. This is needed to replace a lost ticket.
- If the pass expires while parked inside the garage, the regular parking rate from the expiration time stamped on the ticket will be charged.
- If the pass expires while outside of the parking garage, the entrance machine will keep the pass.
