

Number

Questions

It is okay to share my password with co-workers as long as it is 1 protected from patients and visitors to the office.

It is much better to choose a password that I can remember like my birthday or my child's name than one with too many letters and 2 numbers that I may forget.

3 Patients and visitors to the office have access to

Personal information about a patient can be faxed with or without a 4 cover-sheet

Offices containing computing equipment that store personal health
5 information must be locked when not occupied

6 What does "HIPAA" stand for?

7 What does PHI stand for?

8 Which one of these is an example of PHI?

9 When can you use or disclose PHI?

To guard against unauthorized access to electronic Protected Health
Information (ePHI) that is being sent via email to a non-office email
10 address, you must encrypt the message

11 Audit of health IT operations should be done once every three years

Which answer best describes workstation security safeguards YOU are 12 responsible for using and/or protecting

I can use my unprotected USB thumb drive to copy electronic 13 Patient Health Information from one computer to another

Computing equipment does not need to be kept up to date with anti-14 virus software

When a patient opts-out it is okay for a practice to continue to share 15 their personal medical information?

Answers

Score

FALSE

FALSE

d (None of these)

FALSE

TRUE

a (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act)

c (Protected Health Information)

d (All of these)

d (All of these)

TRUE

FALSE

E (All of the Above)

FALSE

FALSE

FALSE