Hands-On

Approaches to Helping Heal from Traumatic

Children's National Health System

The Mission

of Children's National Health System is to:

- Improve health outcomes for children regionally, nationally, and internationally.
- Be a leader in creating innovative solutions to pediatric healthcare problems.
- Excel in Care, Advocacy, Research, and Education to meet the unique needs of children, adolescents, and their families.

The Vision

of the International Center to Heal Our Children is to help foster, promote and maintain the emotional health of children who are traumatized psychologically by acts of violence, disasters, and terrorism.
